Consent to Disclosure Of Use Of Tax Return Information

Federal law requires this consent form be provided to you. Unless authorized by law, we cannot disclose your tax return information to third parties for purposes other than those related to the preparation and filing of your tax return without your consent. If you consent to the disclosure of your tax return information, Federal law may not protect your tax return information from further use or distribution.

If you agree to the disclosure of your tax return information, your consent is valid for one year from the date of signature.

In order to process your request of the copy of your return we must disclose the tax return information to the email noted below, in order to comply with your request received today.

If you will allow us to disclose your tax return information for the year(s) noted below, to the person or company specified below, for this purpose, sign and date your consent to the disclosure of your tax return information.

By signing below, you, (or your Spouse if married), authorize us to disclose your tax return information for the year(s) noted below. If this request is based off a requested phone call or email, for a copy of a tax return, a self-employed letter, non-refundable deposit for the preparation of a tax return, or the preparation fee for a tax return, there are no refunds once our office performs the requested service.
